Popular Valley Singing Competition Kicks Off Fifth Season

Chandler, AZ (January 24, 2011) – Lucky Break at Lone Butte Casino will begin auditions for its fifth season on Wednesday, January 26th.

The popular singing competition offers valley hopefuls their shot at stardom in a contest that brings out talented and sometimes not so talented singers from around Arizona. Hosted by CBS 5's Paul Horton, Lucky Break takes place inside the Cascades Lounge at Lone Butte Casino. Singers perform in front of a panel of judges and will compete for a cash prize of $10,000 and an opportunity to showcase their talents to top record executives.

Auditions are held each Wednesday at 8pm beginning January 26th. Each Thursday, the top contestants are invited to return to the Cascades Lounge to tape their performances for the Lucky Break broadcast, which airs every Saturday on CBS 5 at 11:35pm beginning on February 5th.

Interested contestants must register online at WinGilaRiver.com to schedule an audition. Contestants must be 21 to enter. For additional information follow Lucky Break on Facebook, Myspace and Twitter or call 1(800) 946-4452.
