Wild Horse Pass Hotel & Casino Receives AAA Four Diamond Award

Chandler, AZ (January 13, 2013) – Wild Horse Pass Hotel & Casino has been awarded the esteemed AAA Four Diamond Award. By meeting strict criteria measuring all aspects of service and amenities, Wild Horse Pass Hotel & Casino has proven to be among the top hotel properties in Arizona and has earned the award for a third year.

“We are honored to be awarded this prestigious designation,” said General Manager, Michael Olujic. “The team here at Wild Horse Pass Hotel & Casino has diligently worked hard since our opening to provide the best guest experience in the valley with the highest quality amenities. This recognition shows that tremendous effort has not gone unnoticed.”

The AAA Diamond Rating process is North America’s premier hotel rating program. The program provides one of the industry’s most reliable ratings to guide lodging decisions for vacationers and business travelers in the United States, Canada, Mexico and the Caribbean. This is measured by the degree of hospitality, service, amenities and attention to detail a property offers its guests. The system provides hotel guests with a quick and dependable rating on service levels at thousands of hotel properties both locally and internationally.

“AAA developed the Diamond rating system more than 75 years ago as a travel resource. It is one of the only rating systems that include on-site evaluations by anonymous inspectors,” said Linda Gorman, Communications and Public Affairs Director for AAA Arizona. “Earning a Five or Four Diamond Award is one of the highest accolades in the travel industry.”

Wild Horse Pass Hotel & Casino is one of three casinos owned and operated by the Gila River Indian Community. Opened in October of 2009, the property includes 990 slot machines, 71 table games, 242 modern hotel rooms, over 12,000 square feet of conference space, 7 dining options headlined by Arizona’s only Shula’s Steak House, and a 1,400 seat showroom.
